

RAMIRO FISCELLA

FRONT-END DEVELOPER

I am a self-taught web developer from Azul, Buenos Aires, Argentina looking for my first work experience in the IT world.

I have a special appreciation for design, so the interface of a site is very important to me. I'm currently gravitating towards React.

I am a fast learner and a problem solver. I am confident that my eagerness to learn and adapt to new technologies, as well as my strong work ethic, will make me a valuable asset to any team.
